NOTICE

ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

The City of Wheatland is accepting applications for a vacant Planning Commissioner seat. The Wheatland Planning Commission makes decisions regarding community development, land use development, and use permits. They advise the City Council on the planning and the land use matters such as zoning issues, use permits, and the General Plan.

Application forms are available at City Hall Offices located at 111 C Street, Wheatland, California 95692 or you may download an application from the City's website, www.wheatland.ca.gov from the home page.

The deadline for submitting applications is February 28, 2018 at 5:00 p.m.

The new Planning Commissioner will be appointed by City Council at a regular City Council meeting on March, 13, 2018.
